NARRATIVE:

Lemos, an active member of the Ghetto Boys street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 and includes convictions for grand theft auto, robbery, battery, felon in possession of firearm, receive known stolen property, possess controlled substance for sale, and violations of parole. Lemos has served multiple state prison terms the longest a nine (9) year term for grand theft auto. Lemos was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 28th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lemos qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possess controlled substance for sale, is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as an active gang member and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
